Your eyes are bloodshot red you stare me down
You wear your anger like you wear your frown
I know you feel upset it's in your tone
And you know this time your on your own
Your eyes are red you stare me down

[Chorus]
I watch you live your dreams
Real lies and happy themes
Can we behold these schemes
Before we're part of the sea

Your skeleton is made of hope and swine
You got a body but you lack a spine
You gotta realize before it's much to late
Your foreside is meant to deviate
To protect your delicate inside

[Chorus]
I watch you live your dreams
Real lies and happy themes
Can we behold these schemes
Before we're part of the sea

[Chorus]
I watch you live your dreams
Real lies and happy themes
Can we behold these schemes
Before we're part of the sea

I watch you live your dreams
I watch you live your dreams
I watch you live your dreams
