I am lying in my bed and
I got no energy to get up
One limb is numb and the other
Got no motor skills to kill the other
Suddenly I feel the earth shake
I am running out the door and I am wide awake
Sometimes it's what it takes

[Chorus]
Don't try to close your eyes
You're watching it all
You're watching it all
See right through this disguise
You're watching me fall
You're watching me fall

Do I turn left or right door
Do I turn out I have lost my way
100 miles per hour
To a destination I couldn't say
You stop to watch the wreckage
You can't peel your arms off
Would you dare to even care

[Chorus]
Don't try to close your eyes
You're watching it all
You're watching it all
See right through this disguise
You're watching me fall
You're watching me fall

[Chorus]
Don't try to close your eyes
You're watching it all
You're watching it all
See right through this disguise
You're watching me fall
You're watching me fall

[Chorus]
Don't try to close your eyes

You're watching it all
You're watching it all
See right through this disguise
You're watching me fall
You're watching me fall
