Nowhere to go don't even know my name
Such a long time since I played your war games
Don't know the rules but I can learn real fast
They're gonna start a nuclear blast.
Join in the arms race seems allot of fun
Fingers on the button no need to use a gun
They play their game with a loaded dice
Don't take no orders we just follow advice
The politicians they make all the noise
They're playing pogo with their nuclear toys now.
Join in the arms race seems allot of fun
