Just a little bit
Just a little bit
Just a little bit
Just a little bit

There's a little bit of you in every girl I run into
In every girl I ever knew and since that day
We went our own way, it's true There's a whole lot of me still hung on every little bit of you
Just a little bit

There's a little bit of you in every tender night I share They can't see that you're still there, one look in my eyes
And they realize it's true
There's a whole lot of me still hung on every little bit of you
Just a little bit

Now one girl has your smile so we smile for a little while
One girl has your touch so we touch, yeah we touched
'Til I found she really didn't have your touch That's when I knew I missed you a little too much

There's still a little bit of hope hidin' down in this old heart of mine
Whispering there'll be another time, I looked around
And what I found just won't do 'Cause there's a whole lot of me still hung on every little bit of you

Just a little bit
Just a little bit
Just a little bit

There's a little bit of you in every girl I run into Every girl I ever knew and since that day
We went our own way, it's true
There's a whole lot of me still hung on every little bit of you

Just a little bit
Just a little bit
Just a little bit

All I ever really wanted, all that I needed is just you There's a whole lot of me still hung on every little bit of you

Oh, just a little bit, baby, all I ever wanted, all I ever needed

All I ever wanted, all I ever needed, yeah
