It's you
It's you

Hello baby, yes it's me again and I'm Looking for the rainbow's end it's hidden in your mind
I'll tell you baby, I think I can bring you through
The answer lies within those lonely eyes of opaque blue

It's you, it's you
I'll never find another love like you, it's you
I would die if you should leave me
Baby, baby, please believe me

And don't you cry
I'm here to dry your tears and
In a while I'll make you smile again
And see it's me

Hello baby, yes it's me again once more Oh I know that we can find the love that we once had before
I'll tell you baby, I can't face another day
And before the sun goes down tonight I've got to hear you say

It's you, it's you
I'll never find another love like you, it's you
I would die if you should leave me
Baby, baby, please believe me

It's you, it's you
I'll never find another love like you, it's you
I'll never find another love
