Working nine to five each day is starting to get tired.
Trying to live my life this way, it's hard to get excited.
Now all the time I'm faced with responsibilities
And all the pressure's falling down on me.
Sometimes I feel like I just wanna run. I wanna get out in the sun.

I wanna be free to do whatever I want to. Free to be like a bird in the sky.
I wanna be free to do whatever I long for. Free to get out and fly, yeah.
I wanna be free, yeah.

When I was just a child, I couldn't wait to get older.
I wish I knew then what I know now. I'd stayed a child much longer.

We, the people. Who the hell are they fooling?
Constitution made by the Union.
An order, a sorta, supporta, for the rights of all man.
We all take a stand, man, to what we can, yeah that's the plan.
Destruction caused by more money and greed. Do whatever in order to succeed.
So if the people are free then just let them be
