"Needin' Someone"

I've been so lonely lately, sitting and thinking about the times we one knew.

I've never met a girl so perfect before until I met you.

C'mon I need you, just take my hand, whoah, c'mon now, baby

Don't be afraid, I just wanna touch you and take you to my heaven again and again.

Cuz I'm needin' someone who will stand beside me and hold me softly.

And I'm needin' someone who will pull through the bad times with me and understand.

Memories of you and me, it's hard to believe that you were once mine at one time, ooh.

Don't think I'll ever give up cuz my love for you will never ever die, no, no.

Well, my love's a reflection, a mirror image. When you're hurt, I feel it, too.

And I think you know I'd be there if I could get to you.

Ahh, ahh. Take all of me, girl, can't you see that I'm needin' you?

I need you right here right now, baby, yeah
