Left a flower in the spring
You know that I'm coming back
All the moments you were mine
I don't know what has become of you
But I know what's left
All the love you held inside

Beyond the stars there's no one alive
I know there's a way
This 20 hours since my sleep
I know you will stay
Until this moment, don't talk to me
A crisis away

Left the hour you descend into another time
All the words you held inside
I don't know what has become of you
But I know what's next
All my hope you would divide

Beyond the stars there's no one alive
I know there's a way
This 20 hours since my sleep
I know you will stay
Until this moment, don't talk to me
A crisis away

Today, my soul is unscathed
I can't touch the ground
La la la
Today, my soul is unscathed
I can't see the ground
La la la

Left a flower in the spring
You know your love won't last
All the moments you were mine
I don't know what will become of you
But I know what's left
All the time you have to find

Beyond the stars there's no one alive
I know there's a way
This 20 hours since my sleep
I know you will stay
Until this moment, don't talk to me
A crisis away
