I got different debates, my eyes don't survive
I'm living with the loss and we're livin' in denial
Good thing you question who's gonna carry on
If no one's awake then there's no one who can play along

I need a rival, I need a rival
I'm tired of the FOOLS WHO ARE killin' for survival
I need a rival, I need a rival
I found my soul AND SET it on fire
I'm not the RIGHTEOUS, I'm not the innocent
I'm just a sign, it's all gone wrong
We're not the RIGHTEOUS, we're not the innocent
We're just a sign, it's all wrong

Well I got the MESSAGE, but there's no one available
I've seen at all before, and I'M FINE IF YOU SAY SO I go to places no one should ever go
I'm living like I knew what the hell I was looking for

I need a rival, I need a rival
I'm tired of the FOOLS who are killing for survival
I need a rival, I need a rival
I found my soul AND SET it on fire

My souls on fire I live in superstition, my souls on fire I carry on the fight [x3]

We're not the RIGHTEOUS, we're not the innocent
We're just a sign, it's all gone wrong
I'm not the RIGHTEOUS, I'm not the innocent
I'm just a sign it's all gone wrong
I need a rival, I need a rival
I'm tired of the FOOLS who are killin' for survival
I need a rival I need a rival
I found my soul AND SET it on fire
