All the while she turns along
You and I
Walking around with nothing on
You and I
She comes alive, she comes alive

All the while she turns along
You and I
Walking around with nothing on
You and I
She comes alive, she comes alive

You and I
Only hear what we want to hear
You and I
Only see what we want to see
And the rain is sonic
To the lonely years
And I'm wondering

You and I
Only go where we want to go
Through the magic tunnels
And ride them home
Spend a life with out money
And I wonder if you would join me

All the while she turns along
You and I
Walking around with nothing on
You and I
She comes alive, she comes alive

You and I
Only see what we want to see
With the windows foggy
And lifes a dream
Now your beauties upon me
Have the city spoken with Tawnie

You and I
Only find what we want to find

Through magic tunnels
Of endless light
Spend a life with out worry
And I wonder if you would join me

All the while she turns along
You and I
Walking around with nothing on
You and I
She comes alive, she comes alive

All the while she turns along
You and I
Walking around with nothing on
You and I
She comes alive, she comes alive

Oh oh...
She's climbing up the stairs now
Oh oh...
She's climbing up the stairs now
Floating in the air now
Oh oh...
She's climbing up the stairs now
Floating in the air now

Oh oh...
Floating in the air
