Crawl into the bottle reach for the message down inside
See what you uncovered it's another bottle full of lies Now I'm passed on the street corner from a blacked out drunken night
I was so fucked up surround by cops so they take me back to ocean side

Crawl into the bottle Stumbling down the only path we know

Here I am sitting here and I'm drinking all alone It leads back to travel back to a place where I don't belong

My drunken face wakes up in another drunken haze
And I passed out drowning at the bottle of a lake Liquor keeps filling me up as my mind overflows So I jack another drink of my jack and coke light that cigarette Lets go
