I have wasted all my life there's no place where you can hide

And I hope to see your face again
Through my tears and through your lies
I don't know what we can find
And I don't wanna be alone

If a story starts with Once upon a time
Don't be afraid, don't be afraid of love
Well I've wasted all my life
There's no place where you can hide
And I hope to see your face tonight

Don't loose yourself and try to be the same
Don't you ever leave me
Don't loose yourself and try to be the same
Don't you ever leave me
Don't loose yourself and try to be the same

I've tasted all your lies at the light of lonely night
And I love the way you say goodbye
It was a cold and dark dark day
You could feel it in your vain
The rain was falling on my way

If a story starts with Once upon a time
Don't be afraid, don't be afraid of love
Don't loose yourself and try to be the same
Don't you ever leave me
Don't loose yourself and try to be the same
Don't you ever leave me
Don't loose yourself and try to be the same

Well I've wasted all my life
There's no place where you can hide
And I hope to see your face again
