"Stay Tonight"

Visit "Stay Tonight" on MotoLyrics.com

I am beggin' you to stay tonight
There is no chance there is no light
Say you love me only stay here tonight

Leave the darkness on the step outside
There is no place there is no light
Say you need me only stay here tonight

I can feel it coming through the night
And I'll never say goodbye
I can feel it calling to the night
There is no chance there is no light

I am beggin' you to stay tonight
There is no chance there is no light
Say you love me only stay here tonight

I can feel it coming through the night
And I'll never say goodbye
There is no chance there is no light

My mother told me ah she told me I
Should never judge a book by the cover
And everytime you come around I can't Remember where or when you were so bad
It's not a matter of you not giving me so
Much love and affection
But everytime you come around there's so
Much trouble heading in my direction
