shadows play across my window voices whisper behind the walls i look i listen but i see no one oh it seems like i'm in a dream chorus:

and i know
deep down i really know this world we live in is starting to change and we will never waste the chances we take we play it right what we have will never ever break a phrase

those sweet simple words all my days are gonna see me through little hands and little feet oh no
life ain't a one-way street

(chorus)

i recall the way it used to be spent my days living recklessly the day it came to be i can finally see

(chorus)
