Walk this road my love
like anything could happen blindly grab whatever does or doesn't matter

I did not want to write anything
I just wanted you
to taste the ink
just wanted you

To be prepared when at night when I side up with the moon, my dear companion by it's light I'll guide my steps at the bottom of the bottle

I did not want to
write anything
I just wanted you
to taste the ink

I'll shut the lion's mouths
if you let me
