I had a conversation with the ocean
I shared a little whisper with the stars
I wrote a letter on a folded paper airplane hoping it would find a way to your heart

It seems as miles get longer every day.
And the scent of your perfume ain't as strong, no.
But every day away it gets closer to the day we meet again, oh what a day, oh what a day.

[Chorus]

Darling we belong.
Distance only makes this love twice as strong.
Over and over again I fall in love like the first time.
Fly away with me.
There's so much of the world we have yet to see.
No one can stand between us its just you and me.
In love, oh in love.
In love.

I've seen a thing or two within this blessed lifetime.
Never thought something like this would come my way.
But you came into my life, unexpectedly.
You came from miles away, you came from the bay.
It's funny what you find when you come looking
I'm loving you just smackdab in my face.
Boy you have my heart, no matter how far.
I'm a dream away, so best believe one day.

Oh you, I must see the lightning.
You turn everything so wonderful.
Hope is when, I've come and gone, I couldn't see the sun.
Your love keeps me still.
And every moment when I think of you my soul feels so brand new. And the one I'd be longing for. (I'd be longing for)

[Chorus background]

Over and over again. Come fly with me come fly with me. Doop de doop doop...
There so much of, there's so much more.
You and me eternally forever and always be.

So in love in love in love in love.
Six thousand miles away, one day we could finally say
we've made it.
Letter on a folded paper airplane hoping it will find its way..
