Am I sitting? Or am I flying?
Balloons are so near, but I'm not dreaming
I haven't personal boundaries I'm running to the moon
Set my heart on fire, but I feel no pain
I'm chasing after myself Dizziness is eating me
I'm Tripping Over My Own Feet
Why I'm not smiling Am I quenching my happiness?
But I really don't know
Why the night draws nigh

I'm falling
Into the oblivion
But you can't understand
I'm sinking
To bottom of the ocean
But you can't understand

I'm crying, maybe it is over
I really don't know
Why I'm feeling this grief

I'm falling
Into the oblivion
But you can't understand
I'm sinking
To bottom of the ocean
But you can't understand
