Runnin to the top of the mountain
Let it all out in one loud scream
No one is around to hear your call
Just the sound of your voice echoing
As the silence starts to surround you
With the feelin' of the breeze, yea
Well you take it all in just for a moment
And you dance among the trees

I'm travelin' to an unknown place, yea
Makin' stops to ease my mind
I gotta see, gotta be, gotta live this life, yea
One simple step at a time
I taste the sunshine of your lips, yea
And you know that I've been freed
I throw those problems right out the window
Oh, and together we'll be dancin' in the trees

So you breathe a sigh of relief
Cause now is the time to fly
Will you fix your eyes on that sea of powder?
And you kiss the clouds goodbye
I wanna make this run last forever
I could'nt make this run any better
Don't wanna hear about any changes in the weather
Our waves are right, they're breakin' left and right
Now free from gravity, gets you light as a feather

I'm travelin' to an unknown place, yea
Makin' stops to ease my mind
I gotta see, gotta be, gotta live this life, yea
One simple step at a time
I taste the sunshine of your lips, yea
And you know that I've been freed
I throw those problems right out the window
Oh, and together we'll be dancin' in the trees, yea

I know you can't stand to hear about it
This feelin', I can't live without it
It takes me to a place that's free
I said it takes me to a place that's free
I said it takes me to a place that's free

I'm travelin' to an unknown place, yea
Makin' stops to ease my mind
I gotta see, gotta be, gotta live this life, yea
One simple step at a time
I taste the sunshine of your lips, yea
And you know that I've been freed
I'll throw those problems right out the window
Oh, and together we'll be dancin' in the trees
