Waiting at the bus stop
Looking at the rain drop
My mind feels so empty

Plastic smile upon my face
Walk like many in the haze
My soul feels so empty

I'm so lost within my haze
All I do is sit and gaze
My life feels so empty

Always dealing with the pain
Playing the same old stupid game
My world feels so empty

Waiting at the bus stop
Looking at the rain drop
My mind feels so empty

Plastic smile upon my face
Walk like many in the haze
My soul feels so empty

I'm so lost within my haze
All I do is sit and gaze
My life feels so empty

Always dealing with the pain
Playing the same old stupid game
My world feels so empty

Fill the clouds with motor oil
Start a nuclear turmoil
Exterminate the human race
And wipe that smile right off my face
