It's been about two years since I've seen your face and I wonder if you feel the same way, I do.

I'm heading down to Texas in about an hour and I've picked an early flight so I can see the sun rise with you.

But do you even want to see me?
'Cause I can't take the suspense any longer.

And I know it's been awhile, but my love for you has only grown stronger.

Chorus:
So take my hand, and I'll show you the way.
We can run, we can hide.
We can laugh and we can stay together all of our lives.
'Cause you know that's what I want.
But I can't make you feel the same.

So, here goes nothing but my heart on the line.
On the surface things are good but inside I'm dying
and I just can't deny the truth anymore.
So do you even feel the same way?
'Cause I just can't take this pain any longer.
And I know it's been awhile, but my love for you has
only grown stronger.

[Chorus]

Your eyes meeting mine was all it took
Like the happy ending in a book.
You were meant for me, you were meant for me.

And I feel the passion in your soul.
Your heart beats way out of control.
I was meant for you, I was meant for you.
[Chorus]
