"Dear Ould Ireland"

In Pennsylvanian woods we've met from one bright island flown.
Great is the land we tread, but yet our heart is with our own.
And ere we leave this shanty small while fades the
autumn day,
We'll toast old Ireland dear old Ireland, Ireland boys
hooray.
Ireland boys hooray, oh Ireland boys hooray
We'll toast old Ireland, Dear old Ireland, Ireland boys
hooray.

We've heard her faults a hundred times, the new ones
and the old.
In songs and sermons, rants and rhymes, enlarged
some fifty-fold.
But take them all, the great and small, and this we've got to say:
Here's loved old Ireland, dear old Ireland, Ireland boys
hooray.
Ireland boys hooray, oh Ireland boys hooray
We'll toast old Ireland, Dear old Ireland, Ireland boys
hooray.

We know that brave and true men tried to crack her rusty chain.
The patriots suffered, the martyrs died, and all 'tis said
in vain.
But no boy, no, a glance will show, how far they've won
their way.
Here's brave old Ireland, dear old Ireland, Ireland boys
hooray.
Ireland boys hooray, oh Ireland boys hooray
We'll toast old Ireland, Dear old Ireland, Ireland boys
hooray.

We've seen the wedding and the wake, the patron and
the fair.
Lithe young frames and the dear old games in the kindly Irish air.
And the loud "Harroo" we have heard it too, and the thundering "Clear the way!"

Here's gay old ireland, dear old Ireland, Ireland boys
hooray.
Ireland boys hooray, oh Ireland boys hooray
We'll toast old Ireland, Dear old Ireland, Ireland boys
hooray.

In Pennsylvanian woods we've met and may never see
again,
The dear old land where our hearts are set and our first fond hopes remain.
But come, fill up another cup, and with every sup we'll say,
We'll toast old Ireland, Dear old Ireland, Ireland boys
hooray.
Ireland boys hooray, oh Ireland boys hooray
We'll toast old Ireland, Dear old Ireland, Ireland boys
hooray.
