Verse 1: Pastor Troy

Sometimes I feel like I am stuck between a bad dream
Yes I believe, blessed wit G's that's around me Forevermore a thug buddy you can't clown me, that's on the court
Running this race thank the Lord for his amazing grace
Give me war, strength and power daily
Everything's gone be straight though, I'm on the grind
Lord bless my lady, don't let situations drive her crazy Baby I know, everyday it's like I gots to go, never no time
It's 20/20 from the 'Burban to the Benz now
Love is blind, I can see it now
A fifth of Remi, it ain't many that can maintain But boo I love you cause I know that you can stand the game

Stand the game

Chorus: Co-Ed

Sunny days, everybody loves them
Tell me baby can you stand the game
Storms will come, this we know for sure

Tell me baby can you stand the game

Verse 2: Pastor Troy

Sometimes I wonder how did I become so lucky

A million hoes, now I got a gurl that loves me
All I was thinking bout was money or selling drugs, that's what it was
It's kind of funny cause I never been the one for love
Young rich nigga, hoes a dime a dozen
The older that I grew, I knew a ho ain't nothing
It's more than fucking that was high school shit
I moved my gurl in, it's me her and the pits
Six in the yard, I give thanks to God
And me and my gurl gone stack it up for a while

For making it easy though they say it would be hard
And when she has my child I'll be the happiest on earth
And when I wake up, first thing I see is her smile
And it don't even matter, if it's a girl or it's a boy
And I'm a be there every second of it's birth
Cause the last name is gone be Troy
Huh, the game

Chorus: Co-Ed
Sunny days, everybody loves them
Tell me baby can you stand the game

Storms will come, this we know for sure
Tell me baby can you stand the game

Verse 3: Pastor Troy
Sometimes I wonder do you miss me how I miss you Can't wait to git back to the crib so I can kiss you It crack me up because you could have been done gave it up
But you stay with me cause no matter what you give a fuck
Forever we made a vow, so we gots to do it now Therefore we stuck-together like paste and glue, hey baby it's me and you
I know you believe in me, just say what you wanna be
And we will have everything, if you can just stand the

Chorus: Co-Ed
Sunny days, everybody loves them
Tell me baby can you stand the game

Storms will come, this we know for sure
Tell me baby can you stand the game
