[Intro: Jay-Z]

Y-yea . . .

The flow so amazin' nigga!

Uh, it's yo boy . . . young

Uh huh, I brought Rell wit me

Timbo on the track

J-Breezy! Take it easy I got ya homie

Let's do the damn thing Rell

[Verse: Jay-Z]

When girls stop and stare it's obvious it's the "Roc"

Your vision's impaired it's obvious it's the watch

Park nine for being pasumptious

It could be that ash it cuts in my ear or some shit

Oh stop your dumb shit, Hov is hot

It ain't just hoes and guns shit, I switch top

Big sneakers can't see wit their op-tics

They optical allusions don't confuse dudes wit him

Uh, it's obvious stayin' used to win

Used to being in that Jeep deuce deuce like him

G-4 land a teeted barrel (whoop)

Fitted sombrero to the side, nigga my stride is so ghetto

Projects strut, hop out the plane hop in my truck

Just in time, hop off my thugs

It's obvious you got hate in you thug

You want the crown you got to take it in blood

Nigga what! (c'mon)

[Verse: Rell]

Wit every step, wit every move

Scared of me, in the mood

All I see, is her and me

Gettin' down, I said gettin' down!

I love her frown, I love her smile

Most of all, I love that she's wild

Watchin' her, watchin' me

Escapin' to her, she's talkin' to me!

[Chorus: Rell]

Girl, I can tell by the look in your eyes

and the way that you back it up
I can tell that you like it rough rough - oh yes it's obvious!
Plus, I'm a freak and I know it's your style
cause we get bubble while makin' love
I can tell that you like it rough rough - oh yes it's obvious!

[Verse: Rell]

It's in your walk, it's in your vibe
In your claws, some in your eyes
Chasin' you, you chasin' me
We belong, like Adam and Eve
You're the Queen, I'm the King
Shall no one, intervene
Kinky things, thuggish things
Crazy things, anything!

[Chorus]

[Interlude: Rell]

I can, I can tell
I can, I can tell that you like it rough
I can tell, I can tell that you like it rough
I can tell, I can tell that you like it rough (I can't deny it baby!)
I can tell, I can tell that you like it rough (so don't complicate it!)

[Bridge: Rell]

Don't complicate it (noo no)
Be my lady (love or hate it)
Love or hate it (nooo)
You belong to me (babe)
Don't complicate it (said don't complicate it)
Be my lady (be my lady)
Don't contemplate it (nooo nooo)
You belong to me

[Chorus] (2x)
