"The Old Ones"

So we went down later that night,
Over the hill so far away
Down in the dark hallows we found,
Some of our friends stumbling around.

Bringing back the old ones who are waiting
You try to hide the truth from us,
We know you do, you lie to us
You tell us lies all the time you know,
Oh oh bringing back the old ones

Oh oh bringing back them all.

Take us away over the hill.
We will be back later than noon
You try to hide the truth from us,
We know you do, you lie to us
You tell us lies all the time you know,
Oh oh bringing back the old ones
Oh oh bringing back them all.
