In this case we make a living
We've got to improvise with what is given
We've got to scream and shout
Telling everyone about
Punky monkey business donkeys

Strange exchange to rearrange the plan
A meet and greet and then you see these man
You can't shake hands with them
So you condemn your plan and
Strain your brain again

Don't step into this game
Don't step into this

A weird scene overdressed and clean
A mean appearing grin
And cheese things like silver rings
Artificial brown skins
Just like an itch you diss a pretty king
And kiss his princess slim
Strange exchange to rearrange the plan
A meet and greet and then you see this man
You can't shake hands with them
So you condemn your plan and
Strain your brain again

Don't step into this game
Don't step into this

Blank gold
In their eyes ice cold
Playing social games
I wanna know their names
Beneficial response
Man you talk nonsense
No consensus us to achieve at all

They're playing social games
I wanna know their names.
