The road of life is rocky and when rocks will fall on u...
Yo bro... u better be carefull what u do
And when the road is slippery and your mind play tricks on u too
Yes sister... yes u have to push on through

You should never give it up never give it up never give it up
Learn to love yourself

That's why u got to keep it up got to keep it up got to keep it up Keep your head up high yeahhh

I chant... until the morning dawn Musically sound leads the way and u should never go ashtray oh nooo

When your sky turns into gray... sunshine feels like rain Yo bro rise up from your fears and pain And when you're feeling empty and you've lost your inner glow yo Yes sister don't u ever feel ashamed

U should never give it up never give it up never give it up
Learn to love yourself
That's why u got to keep it got to keep it up got to keep it up
Keep your head up high yeahhhh

I chant until the morning dawn
Musically sound leads the way and we should never go no ashtray o no

We are all born for a purpose to yourself u must be true yooo bro cause there's no one else like u And when u keep on searching I am sure u'll find your clue too my sister Just accept your weakness too

So u should never give it up never nooo learn to love yourself

That's why got to keep it up... got to keep it up Keep your head up high

'Nuff relaxation pon the island man
I hope u overstand... musically sound leads the way
And we should never go noo ashtray no no

No u should never give it up... never give it up... never give it up learn to love yourself
That's why u got to keep it up got to keep it up got to keep it up keep your head up high

No u should never give it up... never give it up... never
give it up learn to love yourself
That's why u got to keep it up got to keep it up got to keep it up keep your head up high

I chant until the morning dawn
Musically sound leads the way and we should never go no ashtray oh no
