Well, if I had a million
I would build you a mansion
A hundred miles from nowhere with all a girl could need

We would run through the hallways
And dance in the backyard
If we ain't got no neighbors
Ain't no one will see

If I had me a speed plane
If I fly across the land
Settle in some little border town

Drink margaritas
And dance to mariachis
Put you on my speed plane and I
I would bring you on back home

If I had me a steamboat
Sail across the ocean
Dock in some little port of call

We would have a fine time
With Swiss cheese and French wine
Put you on my steamboat and I
I would bring you on back home

I ain't got a million
I ain't got a speed plane
I ain't got no boat upon the sea

All I've got on these two strong arms
I can hold you so tightly
So baby won't you, won't you please
Come back home with me

I ain't got a million
I ain't got a speed plane
I ain't got no boat upon the sea

All I've got on these two strong arms

I can hold you so tightly
And baby won't you, won't you please
Come back home with me, yeah
