Well I believe in hope and marriage
Forever and I do
But love suffers pain when you try to hard
And tonight we're living proof

If we fell in love already
We can fall in love again
There is no doubt, we can work it out
Find a way to fall back in

Do you remember when I met you?
What I whispered in your ear?

Be my temporary angel
And I'll be your love for just one day
Hold me for the moment
Let the moment fade away

When you wake up in the morning
And your heart tell you to stay
Be my temporary angel forever
When forever comes our way

We can start this thing all over
Let tomorrow wait it's turn
Forget about the past, it will never last
Strike a match and watch it burn

Do you remember when I met you?
What I whispered in your ear?

Be my temporary angel
And I'll be your love for just one day
Hold me for the moment
And watch the moment fade away

When you wake up in the morning
And your heart tells you to stay
Be my temporary angel forever
When forever comes our way

Close the door

And turn the lights down
Let it all come
Come down to right now

Be my temporary angel
I'll be your love for just one day
Hold me for the moment
Let the moment fade away

When you wake up in the morning
And your heart tells you to stay
Be my temporary angel forever

Be my temporary angel
I'll be your love for just one day
Hold me for the moment
And let the moment fade away

When you wake up in the morning
And your heart tells you to stay
Be my temporary angel forever
