Sometimes it's a car
A certain shade of mystic blue
I think of you
And I wonder how on earth you are
Or sometimes, just a song
That's playing on my radio
And there I go
Just a wishin' you were singin' along.

That's all it takes,
and I just opt to dreamin' I'm in

Chorus

Way back Texas
you were layin' in my arms
Had a class ring necklace
We're gonna buy that little farm
Way down by the river
Yeah raise a family
Down in way back Texas
Uh-huh
Population: you and me

Me I'm doing well
No one in particular
Girl I heard
That you went and rang them weddin' bells,
They say his name is John
His daddy owns a dealership

But the slipper don't quite fit
Yet life goes on and on
So I guess that I'll hang up
And just wonder if you ever dream of

Chorus

Way Back Texas
You were layin' in my arms
Had a class ring necklace
We're gonna buy that little farm
Way down by the river
Yeah, live happily

Down in way back texas
Uh-huh
Population: you and me

And every now and then,
If you need me I'll be back in

Chorus

Way back Texas
Where you're layin' in my arms
Had a class ring necklace
We're gonna buy that little farm
Yeah, raise a family
Uh-huh
Population: you and me
