Why do I need help of someone who can save myself?
I would try to understand but today it's too late,
I wanna save this moment.
Actually I live without any mission.
Bring your moments inside my four walls
When all seem this loudness-song
And I tell you what I would forget.
Why do we hurt ourselves, we are two body, we have time,
we have direction, we have fun.
You know, I hope sole in today, no religion I don't pray
I just live on.
Right solutions doesn't care,
this o pened life take ruote forward.
What I think it's not the same for the people just don't care.
What I hear by them is similar shit throwned away.
I wanna save this moment.
Actually I live within four walls and I'm not so sure
Of what I would forget
