Times are changing, life rearranging
We've seen the falls
Nobody told us that love would make us
I can't believe that's all

You better come up and save me from this
Love that escapes me in your eyes
It will always send it back to
Where I want, where I need, set me free

Your touch it brings me where I want to be
Don't let me fall
Nobody told us that love could break us
Now, I see it all

And it's the last time I'm begging for some
Some kind of love

You better come up and save me from this
Love that escapes me in your eyes
It will always send it back to
Where I want, where I need

I would, say that I've never been perfect
You know I won't let you fall down
This time I'm comin' in after, I'm comin' in after
And you know I will find you

I can't wait for time to heal these wounds through
I'll roll the dice
If you adore me like I adore you
Find me tonight

Come up and save me from this
Love that escapes me in your eyes
It will always send it back to
Where I want, where I need
'Cause where I want, where I need
Set me free!
