I'm going over to the store look some more write some more be over in the night to see you. Carry on tonight where I left off so pleasingly with wording presents. AHA. Can go there but no one will ever sing with me live on golden wishes to carry over something move it on lower into the boat deeper slower.
AHA. I heard someone say sorry to me but it was not
you. I know now you can't forgive yourself I know how regrettable it must have been. AHA. What is love to you then just over flowers never quite allowing yourself to commit in case you did it again then come the day when you did it again. AHA. I lost you several times on the beach that day ways of defying the needs that you had for me. Back to the dance of me love of me need of me knowing I could keep you from a certain lunacy. AHA.
