What's tomorrow's world,
Wel, it will be just the same
There will be no big change
What a pitty, what a shame
But my tomorrow's world
Will be one of fun
No social tricks for me
I'll be on the run

I'm asocial
And I do what I want

I don't care what you do
I know where I stand

What's tomorrow's world
Nothing will be changed
All the old values
Will be behaved
But I don't mind
I will play my game
I will have no scrupules
If there's something to gain
