Dye of emptiness
Psalm in bitter fume
Being goes insane
The candy of the doom

The last mystery of my body is pain
Coiled as a snake in the hole

Day when I tasted the darkness
Forbidden was torn apart
Seeds fell on the buried land of will
Bred lack of understanding

Promise in the air want to feed the poor
Will I see the same when I walk alone?

Brand-new God in dust of preceding ones
The temple built upon the old foundation

Burn dogma in the twilight
We want to see the great blaze in the sky
Black honey can't bewilder
The emissary of forsaken ones

The war is over, welcome sunrise
I am raising the green spray of birth
Forgotten, engraved wishes
Primal instinct from my mother Earth

Twilight comes
I adore you my mother Earth

Day when I tasted the darkness
Forbidden was torn apart
Seeds fell on the buried land of will
Red dawn of understanding
