See the dying sun in me
And winter closes the door
Silent voice will curse the day
When I was born...
Now comes the time to pay

Last day in Cantlos
Black wind blows from the north
Night throws the day into the darkness
Last day in Cantlos
We will die with sundown

Samain

See the clouds in the dark grey sky
And the nature calls

Silent earth will curse the day
When we were born...
Now comes the time to pay

I hope in new dawn
Which was divined in runes
Time will revive
The circle of life and death
I hope in new dawn
Which will come tomorrow... to me

Samain

... An Ghrian Beag... An Ghrian Beag...
