as if the world stopped turning your feeling safe just slipped away all the clouds decided they were to divided so they chased the sun away woh my spirit in the sky cant cha see me cry?
well didnt i try, baby didnt i?

i'm thinking bout you
im thinking bout you
im thinking bout you
im thinking bout you
its all that i can do.

i wrapped myself in thoughts of you and dream this dream that seems to be slipped through my hands may still want to hold on i cant believe that your gone im all thats felt of you oh and im thinking bout you

im thinking bout you
im thinking bout you
im thinking about the way i hold on cant let go
im thinking bout you
its all that i can do
think about you

you are still that special place in my mind, your face, your smell , your touch your voice i miss you so much ohh im thinking about the way i tryed i know im trying to get through i cant stop thinking bout you yeah yeah yeah theres nothing left to do.
