Dropped off your keys last night
The front door still not painted
And you were polite like ice
I once could have melted
You took our pictures down
And you left them on the ground
It's like you wiped all the memories off
All that we used to be, you were me before it all crashed down

And I know I never told you, that I love you
Now it's all too late
And I don't know how to hold you, but I want to
'Cause I don't want to leave this way
All I know is broken

I heard your voice break when you said
'Well I hope you're happy'
Nothing to say I stared straight into my coffee
Then the conversation changed and we talked around the blame
And the pain of losing all
All of the good times lost, all the good times lost

And I know I never told you, that I love you
Now it's all too late
And I don't know how to hold you, but I want to
'Cause I don't want to leave this way
All I know is broken

But I'm here if you need me
I know you don't believe me
And I'm so sorry for all the pain I've caused
For the pain I've caused..

And I know I never told you, that I love you
Now it's all too late
And I don't know how to hold you, but I want to
'Cause I don't want to leave this way
All I know is broken
