"An Acre Lost"

I haven't written much lately but I will be cursed If I ever said a word about you that didn't relate to you being the one thing I can't live with or without.
Didn't relate to you being the one thing I can't live with or without.
An acre lost, a mile gained, an endless wave. [x2]
Now I'm insane.
There's not a chance in hell that I would stay.
I can feel my insides rotting away.
I used to feel so alive.
Now I feel as if, I feel as if I have died.
Isn't that tragic?
Now I feel as if, I feel as if I have died.
Isn't that tragic?
Now maybe you understand just what you sound like.
I'm sorry it had to be, had to be this way.
Now maybe you understand just what you sound like.
I'm sorry it had to be, had to be this way.
Sinking.
Why am I always sinking?
I feel like I'm sinking.
Why am I always sinking?
I feel like I'm sinking.
Why am I always sinking?
I feel like I'm sinking.
Why am I always sinking?
I feel like I'm sinking.
Sinking.
