Haunting Shores, cracking doors
Winds to whisper, terrors and horrors
Souls were lost, and never found
Stories known, but never told

Wings and flames navigate the sky
No escape, no one can fend off the witch and the sword

Sky lit in fire
Rain painted blood
This darkest hour
Is a story never told

They rise from the depths of hell
Spreading fear under her spell
Tonight, two worlds collide
Paving way as the lands divide

One by one, 'till there are none
Darkness falls, upon us all

Wings and flames navigate the sky
No escape, no one can fend off the witch and the sword.

Sky lit in fire
Rain painted blood
This darkest hour
Is a story never told
