I love you, why can't love be enough? you must hate me for what I've done to our love what have I done to our love? what have I done?
even though I smile so my tears drop inside in a black hole not even fears fill this void how long does a tear take from my eye to the ground if not our lifetime gotta turn myself upside down and make it uncried (make it undone) I gotta make it uncried (make it undone) where are we heading? your left is my right we're in a dead end, hopin' that I see the light I broke the purest heart like a virgin skin so innocent and free from sin gotta turn myself in (make it undone) I gotta turn myself in (make it undone)

I gotta turn myself in yeah and there ain't got no place to run
I gotta turn myself in yeah and there ain't got nowhere to run to...
