Chorus

thought Iâ€™d never find you (never find you)
there ainâ€™t no one like you (no one like you)
I put my love inside you (love inside you)
there ainâ€™t no one like you (no one like you)

Verse1

Tomorrowâ€™s kiss wonâ€™t feel the way it feels today tomorrowâ€™s wish will miss these lips feeling the same tomorrowâ€™s touch wonâ€™t be touching you quite this way
donâ€™t play hate
tomorrow Iâ€™ll be telling you all of this once again (but usually) I donâ€™t care â€™bout usually today is different â€™cause today itâ€™s you and me it feelâ€™ so good to loose victoriously come speak with meâ€™...victoriously

Chorus

thought Iâ€™d never find you (never find you)
there ainâ€™t no one like you (no one like you)
I put my love inside you (love inside you)
there ainâ€™t no one like you (no one like you)

Verse2

Nobody knows what tomorrow holds for us
Should live today like this day could be our last, Plus before this touch before this grasp becomes the past
It is a must to feel this fully
One day you might say I repeat myself thatâ€™s true when that day arriveâ€™ Iâ€™ll come up with something new but for today this ya one will do donâ€™t care â€™bout then just wanna be with you, right now

Chorus

Thought Iâ€™d never find you (never find you)
There ainâ€™t no one like you (no one like you)
I put my love inside you (love inside you)
There ainâ€™t no one like you (no one like you)

Oh oh now, oh oh now oh oh yah yah yah

Chorus

thought I'd never find you (never find you)
there ain't no one like you (no one like you)
I put my love inside you (love inside you)
there ain't no one like you (no one like you)

Verse3

We link up from before we link up in a flesh I'm sinking syncopating while I synch up with your breath kinkydelic visions years turn month then weeks then minutes
then moments then indefinite then infinite, come again

come sink with me to the city under the sea so deep under the waters where time is standing still we chill and take a rest from life's troubles and life's stress
a place where no equals yes see who my eyes reflect!?

Chorus

thought I'd never find you (never find you)
there ain't no one like you (no one like you)
I put my love inside you (love inside you)
there ain't no one like you (no one like you)
