The antichrist has bee born, the son of satan
He will bring death and terror to the world
No one can stop him, he has the power
He is evil, he is the king
The birht of the antichrist
The birth of the antichrist
Give hail to satan's son
He will gladly take your obedience
If you disturb him with his cause you will die
You will fell his wrath

The birth of the antichrist
The birth of the antichrist
The antichrist will take sacrifices
So kill humans if thou want to stay alive
The dark one will rise if the antichrist made
A path of blood for his father satan
The he takes over and victory is complete
The birth of the antichrist
