I can see me loving you, you can show me how
There is nothing I won't do, we can start right now
I can see me lov'in you when we're old and grey
Ups and downs or joys and blues, laughing all the way
Born into this world of darkness every child will be Always reaching towards the light
Every living breathing soul unfolds this mystery
Gently rolling to that good night
I can see me loving you
See you loving me
In each moment shining through eternity
Take my hand and walk with me, our love will abide
Past the point of no return to the other side
Might wakeup someday and wonder what life's come to
Is this good as love can be?
All I know is from the moment I laid eyes on you
You're as far as I can see
I can see me loving you
See you loving me
In each moment shining through all eternity
