I pick up the phone to check for a tone
It's been a while since it rang
Another Saturday night no romance in site
Love Don't Even Know My Name

Ben and Amy stopped by to see if I might Go grab a beer and watch the game
But I know I'd feel like a 3rd wheel
Love Don't Even Know My Name

I've heard that love is blind, but I'm not that hard to find
My heart has left a trail of tears
And I'm ready for the taking, but I've been forsaken
Forgotten left out in the rain
Love Don't Even Know My Name

There's just gotta be that someone for me
With that spark to start a flame
But I'll have to be strong till he comes along
Cuz right now Love Don't Even Know My Name

I've heard that love is blind, but I'm not that hard to find
My heart has left a trail of tears
And I'm ready for the taking, but I've been forsaken
Love Don't Even Know My Name

(Banjo & Guitar Solo)

I've heard that love is blind, but I'm not that hard to find
My heart has left a trail of tears
And I'm ready for the taking, but I've been forsaken
Forgotten left out in the

I've heard that love is blind, but I'm not that hard to find
My heart has left a trail of tears
