There are long days, sometimes wrong ways
But I've learned to face each one as it comes
And this journey is for learning and earning my place in the sun
Said goodbye to the child in me
There's a world out there where I've got to be

It's the path of most resistance
I'm on to where it takes persistence
But I know how to drive and don't look back
It's laid out before me now
And nothing's gonna slow me down
Where it leads nobody really knows
It's an open road

Life is full of choices and mine will have many to be seen From dreamer to achiever, a believer in the power of me
I tried running from my past, only to find
What it's taught me is to keep eyes open wide

It's the path of most resistance
I'm on to where it takes persistence
But I know how to drive and don't look back
It's laid out before me now
And nothing's gonna slow me down
Where it leads nobody really knows
It's an open road

It's a daily struggle here
To take the chance and face my fears
But wherever I go I'm never alone

It's the path of most resistance
I'm on to where it takes persistence
But I know how to drive and don't look back
It's laid out before me now
And nothing's gonna slow me down
Where it leads nobody really knows
It's an open road
