You were six, I was four Walking to Coombs general store getting ice cream, same size as our heads I dropped mine, start to cry Rocky Road puddles floating by, you could've laughed but gave me half instead

It's little things like that, that I remember You're my best friend, two for one, closer than just sisters

Through the years we've stayed the same, some things never change
You're the voice inside my head and a million memories
Don't need to say a word I understand you better
You will always be right here with me

You and Dad taught me to drive that beat up 1985 Buik that smelt like grandmas shoes It only cost a hundred bucks but it was good to both of us
It died the day I graduated high school

Two life long partners in crime
But I knew someday we'd have to live our seperate lives

Through the years we've stayed the same, some things
never change
You're the voice inside my head and a million
Don't need to say a word I understand you better
You will always be...

Through the years we've stayed the same, some things
never change
You're the voice inside my head and a million
Don't need to say a word I understand you better
You will always be right here with me

Right Here With Me

You're the voice inside my head Don't need to say a word Mmmhmm some things, some things, some things
never change
We've stayed the same
