I know that you're here
And now you'll die
For what you've done
There is no hope

I'll track you down
I'll slit your throat
As you bleed out
I drink it all

Just run and hide
You're gonna die
Prepare yourself
This ends tonight

The call of the angel
Death as black as night
Sword of justice
Putting you to FLIGHT
My voice rings out
You're going down
And the last thing you'll remember
My voice rings through the night

MY VOICE
CALLS OUT YOUR NAME
THE STEEL SWORD RINGS
I WATCH MY PREY!

All hope is gone
You're on the run
But the only thing
That escapes is time

As I close in
You feel my breath
Hot on your neck
It's time to die!

The call of the angel
Death as black as night
Sword of justice

Putting you to FLIGHT
My voice rings out
You're going down
And the last thing you'll remember
My voice rings through the night

I watch
As your blood pours
But cruel to fate
It's not enough

You have to die
You'll die tonight
You could have saved
Yourself with blood

Blood of the lamb
Holy to save
Your only hope
But it's too late

The call of the angel
Death as black as night
Sword of justice
Putting you to FLIGHT
My voice rings out
You're going down
And the last thing you'll remember
My voice rings through the night

Sword of justice
Feasts on blood tonight
Sending you to Hell
ETERNAL FEARFUL NIGHT

So as you die
You'll ask yourself why
You didn't save yourself
From the call of the angel
