Is it time to accept
Is it time to smile and rest
Is that all there is

Is it time to believe
In a theory of destinies
If it's true that the end
Is nothing but

"this"

I trust it

Time to say "I'm only human"
You think it might be too late
But it's never even been time
Realize now that the ice
Is meant to melt

And no one feels sorry
For the good times

Is it time to accept
Shall we smile and rest
Is it meant to be like this
If it's meant to be like this

I trust it
