As the sunsets, relapse on your fucking regrets
As the sky burns above you
You think to yourself what did I do
The blood in my veins is burning through
My eternal discussed will live for you
Until the day I die
You are the sacrifice, oh

See the light and walk

Like a sea of open waves
Lets hope for better days (Lets hope for better days)
As the sea takes me away, with bloodshot eyes
I begin to say

Bring me back to life
Nothing more than the sight of
A world upside down
My world comes crashing down

Like a sea of open waves
Lets hope for better days (Lets hope for better days)
As the sea takes me away, with bloodshot eyes
I begin to say
Like a sea of open waves
Lets hope for better days (Lets hope for better days)
As the sea takes me away, with bloodshot eyes
I begin to say
