Hello. It's been a while since I've called you.
And I swear I'm not the same I've got a million things to tell you.
But now I've been thinking about this thing called love
and how you had me
figured out

Oh, pick up your phone
because it's me
your miracle
The sweetest since '86
Oh, pick up your phone

I declare I had ambitious plans to ignore you You're in boxes under my bed
That's where you're filed away.
But now I've been thinking
about this thing called love
and how you had me
figured out.

because it's me
your miracle
The sweetest since '86
Oh, pick up your phone
